

Domestic Housing - Athens, Greece

...the innovative hot water solution.

Object:

Traditionally, Athens families can rely on never ending Sun energy for their solar thermal Building equipments – but for certain requirements or areas where no water pipe network has been established, extra water heating devices are needed.

For such requirements CLAGE's slim and conveniently operational Instantaneous Electric Water Heaters enjoy frequent demand.

Thanks to a well established distribution network and technical support from the Capital – many housing requirements throughout the whole country enjoy this German technology for reliably warm water.
